entitled "Woman," was produced, and the Russian Ballet Orchestra played. Among other features were recitations by Mrs. Beatrice Holtheur, Charles Keeler and Frank Tinney, the comedian; dances in costume by Miss Inga Sontum and songs by Prince Paul Troubetzkoy. Mrs. French Vanderbilt, Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary and Mrs. George D. Widener are among those who gave dinners before the affair.

The patronesses were Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt, Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary, Mrs. James B. Duke, Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings and Miss Emily Sloan.

For the benefit of the Surgical Dressings Committee, of which Miss Anne Morgan is chairman, a fair of all nations was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stoeckel, Norfolk, Conn. Among those who took part in the pageant are Prof. Michael I. Pupin, Mrs. Frederic S. Dennis, Mrs. Jerome Alexander, Mrs. Frank Garvin and Mrs. George B. Case. Mme. Melanie Kurt, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, was chairman of the pageant committee.

One of the sensational events of the season at Newport will be the presentation in the ballroom of Rose Cliff, the residence of Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, of a motion picture play, entitled "The Battle Cry of Peace." The affair will take place the first week in September, probably on the night of the 4th. Mrs. Oelrichs will be assisted by Mr. Preston Gibson. These pictures have only been shown officially before the admiral of the Atlantic fleet and his officers and men, and the commandant of the Narragansett Bay naval station and his officers and men. The company who posed for the pictures includes not only a group of talented actors, but noted men of affairs of the United States, representing the army, navy, church and state, among them being Admiral Dewey, Secretary of War Garrison, Gen. Leonard Wood, Dr. Lyman Abbott and Hudson Maxim. The films are dedicated to the mothers of America and will not be released to the general public for several months. The ballroom of Rose Cliff is admirably adapted for a presentation of this sort, and is simply equipped with every requirement of the stage. A supper and dance to which Mrs. Oelrichs will issue several hundred invitations will follow the production of the picture.

With Smart Folk Elsewhere

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., who have been at Newport visiting Mr. and Mrs. James B. Duke, are at Lenox. They will leave within a day or so for an extended automobile trip.
